PET VALU ANNOUNCES INCLUSION IN ONTARIO CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT

Markham, Ontario, September 19, 2007. Pet Valu, Inc. and Pet Valu Canada Inc. (the “Pet Valu Companies”) have been advised that a motion is being pursued in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the “Ontario Court”) to include the Pet Valu Companies, together with certain other retailers, as defendants in a potential class action lawsuit concerning the manufacture and sale of pet food products alleged to contain tainted ingredients.

In addition, the Pet Valu Companies understand that several other lawsuits concerning the same allegedly tainted pet food, in which the Pet Valu Companies are not named as defendants, have also been commenced in the Ontario Court. The Pet Valu Companies understand that, on September 27, 2007, the Ontario Court will hear a motion to determine which of these various lawsuits should proceed in Ontario. The outcome of that motion will determine if and how the Ontario action in which the Pet Valu Companies are to be named as defendants will proceed.
